

Courageous Connections Board Member

Local therapeutic horsemanship organization seeks Board Member

Courageous Connections brings humans and horses together to empower participants with physical, cognitive and emotional challenges towards achieving their individual goals. In short, we create magic by bringing people from all backgrounds and walks of life together to experience the healing power of horses.

Courageous Connections is searching for an additional Board Member. Our current board of directors consists of individuals with experience in program management, volunteer management, equine welfare, and social work. The ideal candidate will be someone who is committed to fostering a culture of inclusivity by transforming our organization into one that is representative of the community we serve. Please let us know if you would be interested in learning more about this opportunity.
