

Courageous Connections Class / Program Volunteers

Local Equine Therapy Program seeks Class Volunteers

Do you love helping others, watching positive change happen in people's lives? Do you love animals and being outside? If you answered yes to these questions then this IS THE volunteer opportunity is for you!

Courageous Connections brings humans and horses together to empower participants with physical, cognitive and emotional challenges towards achieving their individual goals. In short, we create magic by bringing people from all backgrounds and walks of life together to experience the healing power of horses.

We are currently seeking volunteers to provide a safe learning environment for our participants in our unmounted horsemanship programs. Experience with horses is required and all Class Volunteers must be at least 18 years old.

Successful Applicants will:

- Commit to volunteering 2-5 hours/week
- Agree to attend Orientation and Trauma Informed Care Zoom class
- Be physically able to work outside in diverse weather conditions
- Have experience working with, catching, and haltering horses
- Experience working with people with special needs is preferred
